- Chanel was credited in the post-World War I era with liberating women from the constraints of the „corseted silhouette“ and popularizing a sporty, casual chic as the feminine standard of style
- A prolific fashion creator, Chanel extended her influence beyond couture clothing, realising her design aesthetic in jewellery, handbags, and fragrance.
- Her signature scent, Chanel No. 5, has become an iconic product.
- She is the only fashion designer listed on TIME magazine's list of the 100 most influential people of the 20th century.
- Chanel designed her famed interlocked-CC monogram, meaning Coco Chanel, using it since the 1920s.
